

Episode One: Synopsis

Introducing Sarah and her family. Fishing life, daily routines and the children's freedom to play in a safe utopian environment.

We meet a few of the colonists who have made Lazarus Island on Sion-Mecca-9 their home. John finally works up the courage to have a real conversation with Susan, while Graham and Rebecca look on and laugh, clearly seeing John and Susan's early interactions mimicking their own from all those years ago.